

Titles to be awarded at the Leonberger IULH World Championships 2026

On June 13th, 2026, the following titles and awards will be presented during the Leonberger IULH World Championships.

In addition to the titles BOB (Best of Breed) and BOS (Best Opposite Sex), special titles will also be awarded:

IULH Hope

This title is intended for the youngest participants. It is awarded to the winners of the youngest puppy male and the youngest puppy female.

IULH Young Promise

For promising young dogs from the puppy class. The title goes to the winners of the puppy male and the puppy female.

IULH World Championship Junior Winner

This title is awarded to the best junior male and the best junior female, selected from the junior class.

IULH World Championship Winner

The highest title of the championship. It is awarded to the best male and the best female from the Intermediate, Open, Champion, and Breeder classes, provided they have obtained a qualification of "1° Excellent".

IULH World Championship Veteran Winner

For dogs aged 8 years and older from the veteran class. The title is awarded to the best veteran male and the best veteran female.

Double Dutch CAC

This distinction is awarded to the best dog and the best bitch of the breed, provided they have obtained an “Excellent” qualification. The youngest puppies, puppies, and old wise veterans are not eligible for this title.

Best Head and Expression

A special award for the dog with the most beautiful head and the most typical breed expression.

Best Movement

Awarded to the dog with the best movement.
